

Funeral Collection

A tribute to them

When words aren't enough, flowers can help you share your love, grief and sympathy. They make a beautiful final tribute and gift to a loved one.

But at a difficult time choosing them can be overwhelming – that's where we can help. In these pages you'll find all of our funeral flowers plus guides to the different types of arrangements and when you might send them.

Our community of expert florists are also on hand to help guide and support you. From bespoke tributes, to garlands and posies, they hand-craft every arrangement with love and care, paying close attention to your wishes and using their many years of experience. And they'll deliver your flowers personally to ensure they arrive safe and sound.

With years of experience helping people say goodbye to loved ones, your tribute will be in safe hands.

Funeral tributes made with the finest flowers

Throughout this brochure you'll find a selection of beautiful designs but if you can't decide then leave it to one of our florists to hand-craft a one-of-a-kind design for you using the freshest flowers available on the day. That means your tribute might look a little different to the ones pictured, but it'll be just as beautiful.

How it works:

1. Choose the type of tribute. You'll find examples and guides to the different styles and designs throughout this brochure.
2. Choose the colour palette. You can choose elegant neutral tones, vibrant bright shades, or pretty pastels. Or if you're not sure your florist can choose for you.
3. Talk to your florist if there's anything else you'd like them to know, for instance if you'd like a certain type of bloom.

Sprays

Sprays are arrangements of flowers that usually come in a teardrop or diamond shape. The blooms are fixed in florist foam and placed on a small tray. Sprays can be placed on a casket or coffin or next to the grave, and can be sent by any mourner.

Every arrangement is created by a local artisan florist

Bespoke tributes are custom arrangements that are especially personal. They usually go in the hearse near the coffin or casket.

Our community of florists will work with you to create something meaningful and unique. You can see examples on page 62.

Our florists can also create arrangements and bouquets for the service (to display in the place where the funeral is being held) and add finishing touches, like roses for placing on the coffin.
